Help create a one-of-a-kind experience while making the world a better place as a sponsor of our signature event on Chicago's north side. Beer in the Woods attracts up to 1,700 attendees, and is a unique fundraiser featuring craft beer and nature programming. 100% of the proceeds support our mission to unite people to protect, promote, and care for the forest preserves in Cook County. Your sponsorship will help support access to healthy green spaces, which improves physical health, mental well-being, and the local economy.

Thank you for your generous support.

As a sponsor, you can feel good knowing that you're:

Funding Conservation Corps programs for young people and adults, which employ and mobilize hundreds of our community members in local conservation projects.

Supporting advocacy work that ensures we have a seat at the table with public officials.

Providing opportunities for diverse communities to engage with their local forest preserves through free programs, including nature walks and wellness programs.

Reaching a large, informed, and engaged audience who care deeply about nature and community wellbeing.

"Great community feeling and diversity of activities...You are all really considerate of each of the vendors and it shows! ...I'm just as eager as last year for the next one."

- Ambrosia, Northman Cider

"LOVE this event - it's so well organized and has such nice people!"

- rgott_marie@-.com, attendee

"I had a great time meeting new people and learning more about Friends of the Forest Preserves."
